PSST ... GOD IS CALLING

God is calling you. Are you home? Or will He get a busy signal? Or will there be no answer? Unfortunately, the one thing God won't do ... leave a voice mail. You have to answer the call.

Your unique call from God is a ministry assignment He created you to do. He made and saved you to serve others. So what's your unique call? Depicted below is a diagram explaining the components of a calling:

GIFT + AUDIENCE + OUTCOME = CALLING

Gift

God has given you spiritual gifts and natural abilities that are to be used to serve others. Your primary gift or ability answers the question, "What do I do to serve others."

Audience

God embedded within you a desire to impact a particular group of people or specific social issues. Knowing your audience answers the question, "Where do I serve?"

Outcome

The final component is the impact you hope to have on your audience. The outcome answers the question, "What effect does my ministry have on others?"

Calling

Your calling is utilizing your gifts to serve a particular audience in order to bring about a specific outcome. Your calling answers the question, "What will be my legacy?"

Do you know your calling? If not, Designed to Serve exists to help you connect with it. If you do know your calling, Designed to Serve can help you live it out in your daily life.

HOW WE CAN HELP

Designed to Serve will help you understand the key components of your unique design – your life story; spiritual gifts; natural abilities; audience; desired outcome; and temperament. Then your unique design is used to understand your calling and connect you with the place of service and ministry best suited to you.
