"Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away." ~Unknown

Moments that Take Your Breath Away

The view was magnificent. Four of us sat on a rocky ledge in the foothills of Pike's Peak. As the sun was setting we listened to praise songs and talked about our lives.

One friend was overcome with grief because he had no relationship whatsoever with his son from a first marriage. We listened, laid hands on our friend, and prayed earnestly. It was a moment that took my breath away.

Have there been moments in your life that took your breath away? I hope so because these experiences give life deeper meaning and fulfillment. It's similar to the difference between watching a movie in Black and White versus Technicolor.

Most of these experiences happen when I'm living out my calling. Do you know the specific, unique reason God put you on earth? When you do, life becomes a great adventure. And God showers you with even more moments that take your breath away.
