

September 2009 (Vol. 1, No. 1)

This Thursday night, October 10, is a very special moment for us. It marks the official launch of my new nonprofit Christian ministry called Designed to Serve (www.designedtoserve.org). This ministry has been in the works for 15 years, and we'd love to have you stop by the Open House to help celebrate with us. Come when you can; leave when you must. Bring your children.

You've already received an evite, but we want to extend a special invitation to you. Here's a link to see the original evite:
